BIG CIRCUS AT LOS ANGELES.

Ringling Brothers to Exhibit There on Sept. 21st and 22d.

Ringling Brothers' World's Greatest Show is to visit Los Angeles on Sept. 21 and 22, coming this season with new laurels won at Madison Square Garden in New York because of the unprecedented excellence of their performances. It is in all respects the very best circus that was ever organized, and the two performances will be given exactly as they were presented to Manhattan, not the slightest change having been made since the season opened there.

There are no less than seven sensations on the program, any one of which is great enough to give a circus distinction. There are the wonderful Schumann horses which walk on their hind legs, drink from large glasses and roll each other around in huge beer barrels; elephants that use the telephone, conversing with each other over the wire from one end of the main tent to the other; the thrilling double somersaulting automobile act, performed by a young French girl, Robidello, the Mexican wire wizard; the wonderful Lorch family of acrobats and 100 other great acts that are new to America.

This will be the only opportunity for the people of Glendale and vicinity to see Ringling Brothers' circus, and probably never again will such an array of European talent be seen under one management, as the expense of giving such a program is almost beyond belief.

The parade will be given at 10 o'clock in the morning and it is an entirely new spectacle. Some of its features are camels, zebras, deer, elephants and llamas driven in teams like horses and harnessed to ornate tableaux. The parade will be three miles long. The menagerie, too, is a wonder. It is a great and enlarged and filled with strange specimens of the animal world. At the head of the menagerie is Darwin, the missing link, which lives in a miniature house with windows, electric lights, hot water heater, chairs and tables. Darwin eats with a knife and fork, drinks from a bottle and shaves himself.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

In the semi-finals of the tennis tournament at the Glendale Country Club on Thursday, Sept. 9, Balthis and Lowrey defeated Davenport and Morrow 3-6, 6-0, 6-3. After losing the first set Balthis and Lowrey set a fast pace and some very effective play by Lowrey was largely responsible for the victory of the winners.

Lowrey defeated H. Browne in the men's singles 6-2, 6-4, and Oxman won from Lowrey 6-4, 2-6, 6-1. In the final round Oxman was defeated by Lowrey 6-0, 6-4, good placing and a swift service by Ganahl winning the match for him.

In the mixed doubles Miss Austen George and J. MacLafferty defeated Mr. and Mrs. Large 6-3, 6-2. The winners of this match also won from Miss Stone and M. Walton 4-6, 6-4, 6-1. Miss Cornwell and H. Blue lost to Miss Goode and E. Keating in straight sets, 6-3, 6-4.

Miss Alma Stone won the women's championship, defeating Mrs. Large 6-1, 6-1. The victory of Miss Stone in this match and that of Miss George in the mixed doubles, entitle them to having their names inscribed on the women's championship cup, to the great satisfaction of their many friends.

Before an interested crowd last Saturday afternoon G. A. Ganahl won the championship in the men's singles, defeating last year's champion, J. MacLafferty, 6-1, 6-0. This match was not as uneven as would appear from the score, several games going to deuce, but Ganahl was always successful in taking the winning point.

In the finals of the men's doubles Stanton and Ganahl defeated Balthis and Lowrey 6-3, 6-3, in a well-played match. The work of Lowrey and Ganahl at the net in the fourth and fifth games of the first act, bringing much applause from the spectators.

Miss Austen George and J. MacLafferty won in the mixed doubles from Miss Pearl Goode and Miss Keating in straight sets, 6-1, 7-5, the last set being very closely contested.

A special feature of the afternoon was an exhibition match between Miss Mary Browne and Nat Browne and G. A. Ganahl and P. Lowrey. The Brownes won this match, 6-0, 7-5.

THE HIGH SCHOOL.

Largely Increased Enrollment.

The year starts off in the new building with an enrollment of 173 pupils, as against a total enrollment last year of 147 and an average daily attendance of 118.

The new commercial course promises to be very popular, there being 35 enrolled. It is not the intention of the faculty to put pupils entered for the full term into this department for the first two years, but all who elect to take the course may do so. One of the good effects of the completion of the electric line to Eagle Rock is the increased number in attendance from that district. Ivanhoe also sends a larger complement than usual.

A number of students are also entered who have been attending private schools. Some come from Los Angeles, whose parents are building homes here which they soon expect to occupy. The work of the school is not yet worn down to regular routine. Workmen are still putting on finishing touches here and there. Electrical connections are not yet made for the clock system by the lighting company, the result being that the "Master clock in the principal's room ticks off the seconds all by itself without synchronous response from the clocks on the circuit in the other rooms. The telephone system is not yet completed. The desks for the commercial department have not yet arrived, and some other details lack completeness. Next week it is expected that Mrs. Carroll will be ready to serve noontime lunches in the building for all students who wish that service, and many of them have already expressed themselves as pleased with the prospect of warm lunches served on the cafeteria plan.

HIGH SCHOOL BOND ELECTION.

The election held last Monday to decide the question of an additional bond issue of $15,000 to make the final payment on the new school building decided adversely to the bonds by a vote of 93 to 58. The election seems to have been lost to the advocates of the bond issue largely by default, as they did not realize the strength of the opposition, and did not especially exert themselves.

The trustees are now up against an embarrassing predicament, with a payment of some $10,000 due on the contract price of the building and other bills to be met. Various reasons for opposing the issue were given by those voting against it. It was thought by many that the trustees should have sold the old high school grounds for what the property would bring; but there seemed to be no definite sum agreed upon among the critics, for the purchase price. It is quite possible that a clear statement from the trustees as to the exact facts would have gone far to have cleared the atmosphere and removed objections to the issue.

SUICIDE

L. F. Nesbitt, after Unsuccessful Attempt with Phosphorus, Ends His Life by Shooting

L. F. Nesbitt, 25 years of age, committed suicide last Wednesday about 2 p. m., at the residence of Mr. Shook, 211 East Third St. The young man came to Glendale about two weeks ago from Pasadena, having a brother and sister here. Mr. Shook with whom he was staying reports that they attended church together last Sunday evening and up to that time nothing remarkable had been noted in young Nesbitt's demeanor or conversation.

He went to work Monday morning at the Tropic lumber yard, came home in the evening as usual. In the course of the evening he told a daughter of Mr. Shook that he was "tired of it all and it would all be over at 8 o'clock." About that hour he went into the tent where he bunked and came running out with his face apparently blazing from a handful of phosphorus he had swallowed and rubbed over his face. He soon collapsed from the effect of it and Dr. D. W. Hunt was sent for, applying remedies which soon brought him around. Tuesday he seemed to be recovering from the effects of the phosphorus swallowed and behaved rationally. Wednesday morning he appeared about as usual and even played a guitar accompaniment to singing by Miss Shook. About eleven o'clock he procured a large hunting knife belonging to Mr. Shook and went into his tent with it. He was seen and followed by one of the family and his evident intention of injuring himself seemed to be abandoned and he gave up the knife. After this Mrs. Shook had a talk with him in which he said that he was simply tired of living.

"I've disgraced myself and family and tonight ends it all," he said. A loaded 38-caliber rifle sat by the bed in Mr. Shook's tent and shortly afterwards Nesbitt appeared with the gun in his hand. A daughter of Mr. Shook saw him with the weapon and ran across the street to where his brother and sister were. As they went running toward him he deliberately took the stock of the gun to the ground, took a small stick and pushed the trigger while the muzzle of the weapon was pressed against his stomach, and fired. He lived fifteen minutes and was conscious to the last, but expressed no regret. The cause of his rash act is a mystery to his friends. The body was taken to the Pulliam Undertaking establishment and the case reported to the coroner who did not consider an inquest necessary.

HALLEY'S COMET SIGHTED.

The distinction of having first sighted this celebrated comet on its return trip to the sun is claimed by Prof. Wolf of Heidelberg observatory, who detected it as a faint nebulous object in a large telescope on September 11th.

News comes from the Lick observatory on Mount Hamilton on the 16th inst., that Prof. Heber D. Curtis has also rediscovered it in a photograph taken by the aid of the great Crossley reflector, contrary to expectation, the rediscovery thus appears to have been first made by actual sight in the telescope and only secondly by the more delicate means of the photographic plate.

The comet is still over 300 million miles from the earth, a little more than three times the distance of the sun, but it is rushing toward us at the rate of about 2 1/2 million miles a day. By the end of October it will be about 180 million miles from the earth, after which the relative motions of the two bodies will cause them to approach at a slower rate and near the end of the year they will begin to recede from each other until March, 1910, when they will again approach until about the middle of May, when they will be only ten million miles apart. At this date the comet will probably present a fine appearance in the evening skies, though it will be near the sun whose overpowering glare will necessarily detract from the brilliancy of the illustrative visitor.

There is, however, a chance that the comet may prove somewhat disappointing as a spectacle, as the constitution of these mysterious bodies appears to subject them to many vagaries, and exact predictions as to their form or brightness cannot be made, the appearance at one return affording no clue to what they may look like at another. Should our present visitor be found to have undergone changes of this kind it will be no less interesting, however, to the student of nature, who will seek to discover the forces which are at work on the comet to effect such change, and with our vastly increased means of investigation much important information is hoped for from observation of the appearance and motion of the comet during its passage through our regions of the universe.

The place in the sky where the comet may be looked for is situated between the constellations of Gemini and Taurus.

In the latter half of October it will move westward through Taurus, passing through the cluster of stars known as the "Hyades," of which Aldebaran is a conspicuous member, situated almost immediately under the beautiful "Pleiades." In such distinguished company the comet will not be difficult to locate when it gets near enough to be seen in moderate sized telescopes and by unaided vision.

But to those possessed of instruments of high power it is already an object of great interest, and from now on will be minutely "investigated" by spectroscopic, camera, mirror and lens, and all the other powerful and delicate instruments of modern research.

GLENDAL, CAL., SEPTEMBER 18, 1909

A writer in the Scientific American calls attention to the fact that as long ago as 1785, a balloon containing M. Blanchard, a Frenchman, and Dr. Jeffries, an American, crossed the English channel from Dover to Calais in three hours.

In selecting Nick Covarrubias to play the part of Don Gaspar de Portola at the coming Portola festival in San Francisco, the committee has done well. He will idealize the original, however. Portola never bestrode a horse as Centaur-like as does Don Nicholas. They say that Nick has more than once rode the 105 miles between Santa Barbara and Los Angeles, between the rising and setting of the sun.

We are in receipt of a very neatly prepared booklet on "Conservation of Resources," edited by Supt. Edward Hyatt of the department of public instruction for the state of California; being a portion of his biennial report. It is a book of over 100 pages, printed on fine paper and is an excellent sample of the work done in the state printing office. The illustrations are numerous, artistic and educative. Without desiring to be hypocritical, the question arises and will not down, what has this got to do with the department of education of the state of California? Granting the value of the book and the importance of the subject, the fact remains that a superintendent of all the schools of the state is not employed by the people to do this kind of work, nor is the state printing office in existence primarily or even secondarily for the purpose of exploiting somebody's ideas about conservatism. Such unnecessary expenditure of public money as this at the very fountain head of the state school system, is a fair indication of the manner in which the department is conducted, and explains possibly why state school books sold at cost, "cost" so much.

CHARLES M. BELSHAW FOR GOVERNOR.

It is too early in the political season for us to say whom we favor for the next governor of California, but the name of Charles M. Belshaw of Contra Costa, appeals to us strongly and if he should be nominated he would have our enthusiastic support. He was interviewed the other day in Los Angeles and said that while he admits that he would like to be governor of this, his native state, he is not prepared to announce his candidacy. Mr. Belshaw has been a member of the state senate for fourteen consecutive years and has made there a consistent and enviable record. His independence of character is recognized by political opponents as well as friends and should he become governor he will enjoy the distinction of being about the first man in that high position in this state who attained the office without having bartered his personal independence for the gilded bauble. Senator Belshaw was chairman of the committee which tried the four senators for bribery in 1905; resulting in their expulsion. Mr. Belshaw does not play to the gallery and is not afflicted with fads or fancies; he is a plain, honest, capable man—may his tribe increase!

INCREASED TAXES AND STATE DIVISION.

The Los Angeles Express and some other of our Southern California papers have come out strenuously in favor of a division of the state. The subject makes good filling for editorial space while we are waiting to learn officially whether Cook or Peary climbed the North Pole first, but for steady diet we doubt whether it will satisfy the public appetite more than a fortnight or so. The action of the majority of the state board of equalizers in making such an increase in the valuation of the Southern counties and thereby increasing very largely the amount of taxes they shall contribute to the state, was sufficiently outrageous to warrant retaliation against those three individuals, but whether with justice the feeling of resentment should extend to all the people of the state north of the San Joaquin valley is another question. And further than this, reflection is making clear to the people the fact that they are not hurt as badly as at first thought it seemed. The forty per cent increase in the valuation of Los Angeles county, does not mean an increased taxation by forty per cent. It merely means that we shall contribute forty per cent more for state purposes, or approximately that. In other words, this county must raise an additional sum of $460,000 for the state. The supervisors in fixing the tax rate will naturally lower it in view of the increased sum upon which it is applied. Ever since California was a state, San Francisco has held the balance of power politically. The delegation from that city in the state legislature has had things pretty much its own way and its strength in state conventions has been correspondingly overpowering. With the new apportionment of representatives to be made on the basis of the census of 1910, all this will be changed. Los Angeles county will be the dominant power in legislatures for the next ten years, having approximately doubled the representation it now has with a solid voting power equal or superior to that possessed by San Francisco. There will therefore be but little reason why state division should be demanded as a remedy for a trouble which can be cured by legislation which the southern end of the state will be able to secure.

SOCIALISM.

(Contributed)

Some people have queer ideas of what Socialism means. They confound it with anarchy, disorder, dividing up property and other absurd statements. For the benefit of such, the definitions from dictionaries and world-famous men are here appended:

The ethics of socialism are identical with the ethics of Christianity.—Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Socialism is simply Christianity; the Golden Rule applied to every day life.—Prof. Ely.

Socialism being the product of social evolution, the only danger lies in obstructing it.—Rev. F. M. Sprague.

Socialism is the idea and hope of a new society founded on industrial peace and forethought, aiming at a new and higher life for all men.—William Morris.

The abolition of that individual action on which modern societies depend, and the substitution of a regulated system of co-operative action.—Imperial Dictionary.

Government and co-operation are in all things and eternally the laws of life; anarchy and competition, eternally and in all things, the laws of death.—John Ruskin.

A theory of society that advocates a more precise, orderly and harmonious arrangement of the social relations of mankind than that which has hitherto prevailed.—Webster.

A science of reconstructing society on entirely new basis, by substituting the principle of association for that of competition in every branch of industry.—Worcester's Dictionary.

No thinking man will contradict that associated industry is the most powerful agent of production, and that the principles of association are susceptible of further and beneficial development.—John Stuart Mill.

Socialism does not wish to abolish private property or the accumulation of wealth; but it aims to displace the present system of private capital by a system of collective capital, which would introduce a unified organization of national labor.—Prof. Schaffle.

The answer to Socialism to the capitalist is that society can do without him just as society now does without the slave owner and the feudal lord, both were formerly regarded as necessary to the wellbeing and even the existence of society.—Prof. W. Clark.

August 1—Acts xviii:1-22. Close of Paul's Second Missionary Journey. Golden Text: John xvi:33. In the world ye shall have tribulation, but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

Verses 2-3 A goodly proportion of the membership of the church have the ability to preach; ought not this ability to be developed, thus giving to every local church several preachers who could divide the preaching between them, paying only one a salary, who would thus have plenty of time to act as pastor?

August 8—1 Thess. v:12-24. Paul's Instructions to the Thessalonians. Golden Text: 1 Thess. v:15. See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good.

Verses 21-22 Can the real truth ever be a hurt to a true man, and should not such a man be as glad to change his opinions, when he finds he is wrong, as to change a worn-out garment for a new one?

August 15—Acts xviii:23 to xix:22. Paul's Third Missionary Journey—Ephesus. Golden Text: Acts xix:17. The name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

Verses 28-31 Why is it that God has conditioned all extension of human progress and betterment, including salvation itself, upon the zeal, ability, and goodness, of those who already enjoy its benefits?

August 22—Acts xix:23 to xx:1. Paul's Third Missionary Journey—The Riot in Ephesus. Golden Text: II Cor. xii:9. He said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee; for my strength is made perfect in weakness.

Verses 23-27 When the general welfare of the people is injured by the business of the few, is it, or not, the duty of the State to make such business illegal?

August 29—1 Cor. xiii:13. Paul on Christian Love. Golden Text: I Cor. xiii:13. Now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Verses 4-7 Why is it that love tends to promote patience, politeness, kindness, gentleness, humility and every other virtue?

September 5—Acts xx:23. Paul's Third Missionary Journey—Farewells. Golden Text: Phil. iv:13. I can do all things through Christ, which strengtheneth me.

Verses 7-12 Why is it that church members will listen, unwearied, for hours, to a political speech, and get tired of even a good sermon, if it lasts longer than thirty minutes?

September 12—Acts xxi:1-17. Close of Paul's Third Missionary Journey. Golden Text: Acts xxi:14. The will of the Lord be done.

Verses 8-9 Should Christian parents train their children from infancy to know God, to be skilful in prayer, in faith and in good works?

An automobile party composed of Dr. and Mrs. A. O. Conrad, Mr. and Mrs. John Parker, and Mr. and Mrs. Hal Davenport enjoyed a trip to Redlands and Riverside last Sunday. During the ride Dr. Conrad's machine had several balking spells, but aside from that the trip was thoroughly enjoyed.

Meyer, Miss Charlotte Krause and Miss Anna Meyer of Grand Rapids, Mich. Miss Nellie Scott of Los Angeles, Mr. J. P. Scott and Mr. W. W. Lane of Tropic.

Following the close of N. P. Banks W. R. C. Friday afternoon, Mrs. Tessa Stine, corps president, assisted by her staff of officers, tendered Mrs. Alma Dutton a farewell reception at G. A. R. hall. Mrs. Dutton, who left for Idaho, was a most active and loyal member of the Relief Corps, and will be greatly missed by the members of the Corps.

A week next Sunday will be rally day at the First Methodist Sunday school of this place. A special program will be rendered by the children of the Sunday school, this program taking the place of the morning preaching service. Decorations will be of autumn leaves and of sheaves of the different grains. This will be conference Sunday.

Mrs. John Lee Kirkham of Mesa City, Ariz., a bride of last June, who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. William Malcom, of El Monte, formerly of Tropic, entertained with a luncheon at her mother's, in El Monte, Saturday afternoon. Guests from Tropic attending included Miss Freda Borthick, Miss Evalena Ayers, Miss Ruby Borthick and Miss Lucie Bettanner of Pasadena.

Autos of Tropic seem to be getting their share of accidents. Last Sunday as Andy Stevenson was driving his car, in which were John Logan, Wesley Bullis and Dwight Stevenson, beside himself, he was struck by a street car at the corner of Fifth and Main streets, Los Angeles. The front axle was bent and the glass of both lights smashed. An auto doctor was summoned and the break was repaired so that within a short time the car was able to proceed on its way.

Mrs. W. B. Pratt, assisted by the members of the Ladies' Aid of the First Methodist Episcopal church, tendered the pastor, Rev. J. H. Henry, and Mrs. Henry a reception in the church parlors Friday evening. Mrs. Edwards H. Weston, Patriotic Instructor of N. P. Banks W. R. C., presented a handsome flag to Rev. Henry, which will be draped near the pulpit in the church, as a fitting testimonial of Rev. Henry's loyalty to the flag of his country.

MORE BUILDINGS FOR TROPICO.

The largest venture in the building line ever undertaken here is being started by Charles M. Turck, recently of Paris, France. The land which Mr. Turck purchased on Glendale avenue about six months ago consists of seven acres. The northern two acres the owner will cut up into lots and on these lots he will erect ten beautiful homes. These residences will be above the average of the valley homes, and will cost between $3500 and $5000. Outside and in these homes will be modern in every respect. One of these buildings has already been started, and the foundation has been laid, and at the time of this publication the building will be well under way. These buildings are being erected for sale. Taken altogether this is one of the grandest undertakings in the building line that Tropic has seen and with a few citizens like Mr. Turck here, this place will doubtless make rapid strides toward a community of importance.

Jessie O. Cooke of Los Angeles, is putting up a one-story nine-room home on the corner of Eulalia street and Brand boulevard. This home will be equipped with a spacious cellar and with all modern conveniences. A formal garden, with a large lawn in the rear will be a blending of an Old English and Spanish garden. This garden will be so situated that from the street and even from the driveway which circles the rear of the house, the interior will not be seen. A fountain with a cement-lined basin will be in the center of this enclosure, and on either side will be cosy, cool corners. A mission style tea house will be built here. The home will cost about $2300. Mr. Cooke expects to enter the home about November 1st. The house and picturesque grounds will be designed by R. F. Bancroft of Brand boulevard.

J. F. Gates of Cypress street, expects to begin the construction of a five-room, one-story bungalow on his lot just north of the new home being erected by M. M. Eshelman on Blanche avenue in the Davenport tract. This home will cost about $1300.

TROPICO M. D. MARRIED.

Dr. Emil Francis Tholen, who left this place a week last Thursday morning for the East, was married last Wednesday morning, September 15th, to Miss Mary Sydney Shepherd, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Addison Breckenridge Shepherd of Fort Madison, Iowa. This announcement will not come as a complete surprise to the doctor's many friends at this place, because it has long been rumored that he was contemplating this serious step. The ceremony was performed by the Presbyterian minister of Fort Madison at the home of the bride's parents, at six o'clock on the evening of the 15th. After the ceremony the happy couple started on a tour of Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin, after which they will return to this place to live, arriving here about the middle of October.

Dr. Tholen is well known here, having come here about two years ago. He is a graduate of Rush Medical college of Chicago and for two years practiced in the Michel Reese hospital of that city. From there he went to Burlington, Iowa, where he practiced for two years, afterwards coming to Tropic, where he arrived August 1st. He has been practicing here since that time and has built up an enviable service. Mr. Shepherd, father of the bride, is a large property owner at Fort Madison.

When the young couple return to this place they will doubtless be heartily welcomed by Tropic society, and we feel sure that they will find the Tropic people the most cordial they have ever known.

TROPICO PRESBYTERIAN NOTES.

There was a good attendance at the services conducted by the Fishermen's club of Los Angeles in our church last Sunday evening. About twenty Fishermen were out. At the close of the service six young men of this valley professed conversion.

The subject for next Sunday morning's preaching by the pastor will be, "Voices of Life." In the evening the text will be, "Sabbath." Mr. Shoemaker will endeavor to show what the Bible teaches about the Sabbath.

The attendance at Sunday school last Sunday was 77, an increase of 24 over the same Sunday last year.

F. C. Richardson, superintendent of our Sunday school, and family are enjoying a vacation of ten days at Brighton Beach. In his absence John Hobbs is filling the superintendent's chair.

The weekly prayer meeting was held at the Presbyterian manse on Blanche and Cypress avenues, Thursday evening.

A postponed meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the church will be held in the church parlors next Wednesday.

The Ladies' Missionary society of the church met at the home of Mrs. S. A. Ayers on Central avenue, Wednesday afternoon.

A pleasant, quiet family reunion was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Webster on Parke avenue, Monday evening. At this affair four generations were represented.

The following members of the family were present: Roger Webster, cashier of the bank of Holtville, Cal., and wife; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Webster, who are staying at Tropic; Miss Harriet Webster, of the Marlborough school, Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Webster and children, Misses Lola and Lila.
